At the sitting of the Court for the trial of the Pennas, on the 12th, the entire day was occupied by Chonovan in his address to the jury in his own defense. He commenced at the opening of the Court and did not desist until after 6 o'clock in the evening. There was nothing remarkable in his address, a large portion of it being the reading of editorial articles from the Irish People newspaper. He insisted that he had research that the local that the land the order to bring the main dome nothing eriminal, asserted that his case had outraged all law, and gave it as his opinion that Ireland would never be free without fighting. His bearing was insolent, and when he retorted upon the Court his language was offensive and saucy.

There have been no disturbances caused by the negroes, who have behaved themselves very well in this city and in the adjacent country. They have been quiet and orderly for the season, and never before were so few seen on our streets during the Christmas holidays. There is no apprehension or unensiness in the public mind about them.

NORFOLK, Va., Wednesday, Dec. 27, 1865.

There was no serious disturbance among the blacks on Christmas, nor has there been any since Monday. A few brawls in Norfolk and Portsmouth were the result of whisky, and had no political signification whatever. It is true that many of the blacks of this county have provided themselves with pistols, but it is not thought there is any purpose of insurrection among them. Rioting commenced at an early hour in the morning, and by 1 o'clock, o.m. had assumed such fearful proportions that the Mayor found it necessary is to call upon the military authorities to suppress it. Three companies of hancock's Veterans were forthwith ordered out, and proceeded to arrest every one found engaged in rioting and disorderly conduct. Many persons had been seriously and dangerously wounded before they appeared on the sense of action.

It was found that between 50 and 100 of the ring leaders of the varioes disturbances, then going on a throughout the city, were mostly sent to the slave-pen, and there compelled to remain during the remainder of the day. # The Steamer Idaho Ashore.

A regular meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners took place yesterday morning at Fireman's Hall. The business transacted was unimportant, and mostly relating to the internal regulation of the Department, as follows: The complaint of Thomas Abbott, No. 18 Chambers st., was received, stating that he was assaulted by Joseph Moran, alias Mason, a driver stationed in William-st., on the evening of Nov. 18. He was arrested, but released on condition that he would pay $15 for damage done to an overcoat, which he failed to fulfill, and the complainant asks an investigation, which was granted.

John S. Anderson, Foreman of Hook and Ladder Co. No. 14, forwarded his resignation, which was accepted. A claim was made by Louis Frank for $250, the value of a certain shed recently destroyed by volunteer firemen. It was ordered to be filed. The Committee on Appointments and Discipline presented their report upon an investigation of the charges against Burtley Monahan of Engine Co. No. 23 for intoxication. They found both charges sustained, but in consideration of its being the first offense of each, they would recommend that five days pay be deducted from the amount due each for December, and that this decision be sent to the Foremen of their respective comppnies and read to the members. The action of the committee was approved by the Board. A resolution was adopted empowering the Treasurer of the Department to draw $100,000 from the Controller for its use. After authorizing bills against the Department amounting to several thousand dollars to be paid, the Commissioners adjourned. The Steamer Idane Ashere.
